

COMMUNICATION IMMERSION

DIGNIFIED LEADERSHIP & DYNAMIC TEAMWORK

A unique 3-day Seminar where you learn and apply the process of communication together with lots of immediate practice on real work life situations. New interpersonal communication wisdom applied makes such a difference in the workplace and creates trust, well-being, and inclusion.

FOR LEADERS

- 💡 In current times people are consistently stressed, fearful of uncertainty, and exposed to rapid change.
- What if you can make communication your ally to manage yourself and your teams for balance, support, and trust?
- What if you can tap into your full communication potential and practice conversations by design rather than by default to support your leadership and teamwork?
- What if you can assist yourself with a clever action plan, so you don't burn out and lead your team to success with confidence?

FOR TEAMS

- 💡 Miscommunication within teams and organisations costs time, money & lots of nerves and energy.
- What if you as a team can understand your communication diversity, make it inclusive and use it for achieving goals and better business outcomes?
- What if you know how to communicate for support, productivity and tolerance and build a new common language that makes you a workforce to be reckoned with?

- Do you want to dramatically expand your communication potential and inspire your team to work at their best?
- Do you want your teams or teams of teams to work as a flexible, agile unit with great and adaptable communication skills?
